I N T R O D U C T I O N

Nicholas E. Roche, C.S.B., was born in Ireland on February 8, 1866. He grew up in St. Basil's Parish, Toronto, in the suburban area then served by the Yorkville Postoffice. He quit school and went to work at the age of thirteen. When he was twenty-two he felt the call of a priestly and religious vocation and enrolled at St. Michael's College, Toronto. Three years after his ordination he was chosen Founding Superior of St. Thomas High School, Houston, and left for Texas in May 1900. At the time of his death, May 16, 1932, he was Pastor of St. Mary's of the Assumption Parish, Owen Sound, and a member of the General Council of the Basilian Fathers. During the years covered by these diaries he was Provincial, 1911-1916, Master of Novices, 1916-1922, and a member of the Provincial Council.

The years edited in the present volume, 1915, 1916, 1920, and 1922, are contained in four leatherbound pocket-size books which have a writing page that measures $4\frac{5}{8}$ " by $2\frac{7}{8}$ ". The entry for November 20, 1915, states that a friend gave him the diary for 1916. Ruled lines provide three entries on each page. Centred at the top of each entry is the day of the week and the date of the month. The month and year is printed at the top of each page.

Besides space for daily entries these booklets have pages at the front and at the back for miscellaneous entries. Father Roche used these to keep addresses and to record occasional expenses. Such entries have not been transcribed. At the back of his diary for 1915 he used three pages for a chronology of his life from 1879 down to the end of 1915. These pages, together with two sets of resolutions have been copied.

In transcribing these diaries, obvious mistakes in spelling have been corrected. Whenever a word could not be deciphered, a blank space has been left. Father Roche did not take pains with punctuation when writing his diary and in providing punctuation the transcription may have separated or joined phrases in a way he did not intend. Fortunately the punctuation is usually clear in all entries of historical significance.

These diaries were a family heirloom that Father Roche's sister, Sara, gave Father Basil Sullivan when the family home at 28 Dupont Street was sold. Father Basil Sullivan was asked about the existence of other volumes on January 2, 1965, and he answered that he had never seen them. He did know that Father Roche had left a number of manuscript poems and he felt that any other volumes of his diary might be with these, or possibly destroyed.

Father Edmund McCorkell came into the possession of these diaries at a later date and on December 19, 1964, he gave them to Father Robert Scollard with this note:

These booklets are a diary of Fr. Nicholas Roche, C.S.B. Fr. Basil Sullivan sent them to me some years ago. He was anxious to have somebody else push Fr. Roche's cause for beatification.
E.J. McCorkell

These booklets have now been placed in the General Archives of the Basilian Fathers.

Jan. 1, Friday. I adopt an efficacious means to keep my resolutions — make none. Clear, cold, sleighing Novitiate to nowhere. No one came.

Jan. 2, Saturday. Private book.

Jan. 3, Sunday. High Mass. Preach. dinner at home.
Turkey McGann.

Jan. 6, Wednesday. Jno. Ryan up for dinner.

Jan. 11, Monday. Went to Good Shep. Milk and cake for novices. Walked down by plant's on West old memories. Very fine, warm. Oh Jesus I need you.

Jan. 14, Thursday. Very fine. Walk up to Cockshutt corner over by old Cross orchard up hill down to gap, across to old apple tree. Shareys, Moores delighted. Not much change from the day. Will reaped the harvest. If conscience reproach you with some serious fault do not harden your heart.

Jan. 18, Friday. Very fine, thawing, no snow. Stations, fast. Let our imagination always picture us following Jesus in his ministry, his preaching, his miracles, his sufferings.

16, Saturday. Miss O'L. buried. Home.
 Convert, 5th Com. Home for supper. Jim, Tom also.
 not well. Fine, warm. Asked to preach for H. Name at St. B's. Refused.

17, Sunday. Fine, warm, colder in evening. Preached to H.
 Name. Retired early. Hilda Vasey up.
 Beachnuts. The secret of happiness is surely a clear conscience.

18, Monday. Walk up through Hog's Hollow. Snow again, good sleighing in the country. Mrs. Meader died 10:30 p.m. Complaints about scholastic teaching from C. Coug.

 who are likely to have part in our temptations.

21, Thursday. Fine, snow, fairly cold.
 Mrs. Meader buried. Visit
 Dockerays with Ma Gorce Confession.

22, Friday. Fine, cold. Not feeling well, indigestion.
 Evening snow, 7 inches. Heard some gossip about P.X.B. People ought not to gossip about their priest, it creates distrust in some weak souls for all priests

23, Saturday. Big snow storm, 11 inches.
